Pull off all the legs, tail, horns and head and place body and all parts of the Kooties in the center of the table. (One Kootie is required for each player.)

Each player rolls the dice in turn to draw the parts for their Kootie.

Play until you miss your number and then pass the dice to the next player.

- 1 takes out the body.
- 2 takes out the head.
- 3 takes out one horn.
- 4 takes out the other horn.
- 5 takes out one leg at a time.
- 6 takes out the tail.

The person having his Kootie completed first wins the game, and the players not having their Kootie finished, count the parts short, which indicates the number of points against them.
