Directions for Playing the Game

1. Before game is started, players are allowed to look at pictures and read back of cards.
2. Two or more persons can play game.
3. One person is chosen as "Teacher". "Teacher" holds pile of history cards, picture side up.
4. "Teacher" asks first player to name the picture. If player answers correctly, "Teacher" gives him the card and goes on to next player. If player answers wrong, "Teacher" asks the next player for the name of the same card.
5. Each card counts 100. The player who has the most cards after all the cards have been used, wins the game. The winner is the "Teacher" for next game.

FOR GROWN-UPS

Game may be made more difficult by "Teacher" holding the Blue Answer Slip and requesting each player to answer questions on each of the cards.
