Directions for Playing:

- 1.—Select one to act as teacher, and hold the book of Answers. The rest of the players are called scholars.
- 2.—The teacher mixes the cards, and gives at least six to each player, who places them before him on the table, face downwards.
- 3.—The teacher then asks the scholar on his left to turn up one of his cards and read aloud the question on it.
- 4.—If the one turning up the card cannot answer the question, he passes it to the scholar on his left, who, upon failing to answer it, passes it to the scholar on his left, and so on around, until it comes to the teacher, who reads the answer from the book.

- 5.—If any scholar answers the question, he is entitled to the card, and lays it aside for game.
- 6.—The teacher then asks the next, or second, scholar on the left, to turn up a card, which is read and disposed of in the same way as the previous one.
- 7.—Each scholar must, in turn, be given a chance to answer all questions passed around, before they are returned to the teacher.
- 8.—As soon as a question is answered, the next player on the left of the one who last played, must turn up a card, and read its question.
- 9.—No scholar can answer a question out of turn. If he does so, the card will be won by the scholar who at that moment held it.
- 10.—When all the cards have been used, the scholar who has answered the greatest number of questions (which is shown by the cards held) wins the game.
