

DIRECTIONS FOR PLAYING

THE BATTLE GAME, No. 713

Published by PARKER BROTHERS, Incorporated
Salem, Mass., New York, London.

Set up the soldiers at the farther end of a dining room table placing the officer far enough in the rear of the soldiers so that he will not be knocked over by any falling foot soldier.

Whoever makes the highest score in his turn WINS THE GAME.

Each player in turn takes ten shots.

PIT box with card deck]

Every foot soldier knocked over counts FIVE POINTS.

The officer counts FIFTEEN POINTS.

After one player has had his turn and made his score the soldiers must again be set up and another player takes his turn.
